Building Families of Lifetime Readers

BARBERS POINT ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

FACULTY/STAFF MEETING – 9/9/2015

Please take a few minutes to comment on today's session – Mahalo!

Ada Lynn Braum

I never thought about it, but it is true that we need to target parents because of the hours spent influencing children.

We need RAP. It makes reading fun and sparks interest in continued reading.

My children grow up with RAP, right here at Barbers Pt. Elem. They are grown + have successful jobs. My oldest son is an engineer and is at the forefront of history, designing electric cars for Tesla.
